

Student Positions

The mission of Carolina Housing is to create an inclusive on-campus housing environment that promotes development, citizenship, involvement and leadership. Carolina Housing employs over 500 student staff year-round in various positions that range in time commitment and leadership experience.

Working for Carolina Housing is a leadership experience like no other. Past student employees have commented that working for Housing gave them the chance to connect with the campus community at a deeper level, impact other students' Carolina experience, work with a team of dedicated peers and supervisors, learn about themselves and future goals, and have a lot of fun with the on-campus living experience while Leaving their HEELprint [1] on the University! Refer to Timeline for Student Positions. [2]
