

Cobb Community

Welcome to Cobb Community!

Cobb's beautifully renovated rooms, ample amenities, and five-minute walk to class make it a preferred destination for many students. Tucked away behind tennis courts and Cobb Parking Deck, this traditionally peaceful and studious community offers a convenient location near the heart of campus.

Quick Facts

- Region of campus: Northern
- Time to walk to the Pit: 5 minutes
- Style of building: Hall style
- Community office location: Cobb first floor

Do you enjoy tennis? Shooting hoops? Playing the piano? Cobb Community offers them all, along with plenty of study space and technologically-equipped seminar rooms for study groups, movie nights and community programs. Davis Library, Lenoir Dining Hall, the Student Union, and the Student Recreation Center gym are only a short walk away.

Cobb's namesake, Carolina alumnus and professor Collier Cobb, taught geology at UNC from 1892 ? 1934. In 1952, Cobb Residence Hall was completed and named in his honor.

What Tar Heels are saying

"I have been living in Cobb for the past three years and am continuously thankful for its classy decor, strong community environment and extremely convenient location on campus. I have made some of my most meaningful relationships in Cobb, and my fellow "Cobbites" are among the most engaged on campus!?"
