ON-CAMPUS LIVING OPTIONS FOR 2021-2022

Morrison Residence Hall/Community

Sophomore-only building – want to relive campus with your peers? Morrison Residence Hall will be your choice living option for connecting with your Class of 2024! We've created a social atmosphere geared towards connecting you with your peers. With intentional programming aimed at aiding in social bridging, interpersonal connections and building healthy relationships, it won't be too long before you are making lifelong friends as you learn the best way to navigate your Carolina Experience!

Ram Village Apartment Community

What's the best thing about being on your own? Having choices! If you're looking for an apartment-style living experience, then look no further than Ram Village Apartments on South Campus. If you love the campus community atmosphere but want a bit more independence, then this is your next home on campus. You can enjoy a full kitchen and living room, as well as a private bedroom. Within walking distance of all academic buildings and campus resources, this is the perfect place to be on your own while still having the full Carolina Experience.

Mclver Residence Hall

Priority is given to Honors Carolina students. Students accepted into the University's premier academic program have the opportunity to live and learn together, as students who select this community will be housed in Mclver Residence Hall and paired with an Honors Carolina roommate. To learn more about Honors Carolina, visit their web site: <https://honorscarolina.unc.edu/>

Freedom to live anywhere on-campus!

The choice is ultimately yours! As our mission states, Carolina Housing strives for students to experience a welcoming home in our on-campus communities, build life-long friendships and develop skills for their current and future success as they journey through their Carolina experience. Home is ultimately where you want to be, and we can help you make that choice from our numerous on-campus living options throughout our beautiful Carolina campus!
